To Whom It May Concern

This letter is to confirm the Carnamah Historical Society is happy to receive donations towards the project to build a giant replica of the Chamberlain 40K tractor in Carnamah; and acknowledges that these donations will be transferred to the Shire of Carnamah as payments for the project's expenses. Our society holds Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) endorsement and is registered with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC).

The Carnamah Historical Society was formed in 1983 to collect, record, preserve and promote local and Western Australian history; which we have successfully achieved through the Carnamah Museum, Macpherson Homestead and our online endeavours. With the Chamberlain having strong links to our district's development, and the interpretive opportunities the project will present, it aligns to five of our constituted organisational objectives:

- a) Foster interest and understanding of local and Western Australian history and heritage
- e) Collect, record, preserve, interpret and promote objects, photographs and archival material relating to the history and heritage of Carnamah and surrounding communities
- i) Nurture the expression of history and heritage through creative and artistic endeavours
- m) Play an active role in heritage and cultural tourism in the Mid West region

o) Collaborate with community organisations, local governments, educational institutions, the private sector and government agencies

For our record-keeping, we will require the Shire to invoice for donated amounts and for all invoices to reference the project in detail in relation to actual expenses incurred (or about to be incurred). If these invoices could kindly be emailed to us at history@carnamah.com.au

We're pleased to assist this project and look forward to its successful completion. We'd also like to commend both the local committee and the Shire of Carnamah for their vision. Such a historically relevant and large landmark will significantly bolster tourism in our region, which will benefit all local businesses and organisations.

Kind regards
